SECTION I - PROPERTY COVERAGES: SPECIAL LIMITS OF LIABILITY (COVERAGE C)

The special limit for each category below is the total limit for each loss for all property in that category. These limits do not increase the Coverage C limit. a. $200 on money, bank notes, coins and gift cards. b. $1,500 on securities, accounts, deeds, passports and tickets. c. $1,500 on watercraft, including their trailers and outboard motors. d. $2,500 for loss of jewelry, watches, furs, precious and semiprecious stones, by any covered peril including fire. e. $2,500 for loss by theft of firearms. f. $2,500 for loss of silverware, goldware and pewterware. g. $2,500 on property used for business purposes on the residence premises. h. $1,500 on electronic apparatus while in a motor vehicle.

SECTION I - CONDITIONS: LOSS SETTLEMENT

Covered property losses are settled as follows. Personal property is paid at replacement cost without deduction for depreciation. Until the property is actually repaired or replaced, we pay the actual cash value, and the difference when replacement is made. Following a loss related to a state of emergency, you have no less than 36 months from the first payment to repair, rebuild or replace and collect the full replacement cost. The dwelling is settled at replacement cost up to the Coverage A limit plus the extended replacement cost percentage shown in the Declarations.

SECTION I - CONDITIONS: DUTIES AFTER LOSS

In case of a loss to covered property, you must see that the following are done: a. Give prompt notice to us or our agent. b. Protect the property from further damage. c. Prepare an inventory of damaged personal property showing the quantity, description, actual cash value and amount of loss, with bills, receipts and related documents that justify the figures. d. Send to us, within 60 days after our request, your signed, sworn proof of loss. For a total loss of the dwelling related to a state of emergency, we will accept an inventory that groups categories of personal property and will offer an advance payment for living expenses and contents without an itemized inventory.

SECTION I - CONDITIONS: LOSS OF USE AND SUIT AGAINST US

Additional living expense is paid for the shortest time required to repair or replace the damage or, if you permanently relocate, the shortest time for your household to settle elsewhere, up to 24 months, with extensions of up to 12 more months for delays caused by a state of emergency. No action can be brought against us unless there has been full compliance with all the terms of this policy and the action is started within 24 months after the date of loss when the loss is related to a state of emergency, otherwise within 12 months after the date of loss.
